Practicing Family Medicine in Inuvik

Inuvik is currently recruiting for a permanent Family Physician with Enhanced skills in Anesthesia. We offer a breathtaking locale while providing breath for those “going under”! It is an unparalleled place to live and work. We welcome good people, and support friends or family who may be considering the move with you.

The Inuvik Regional Hospital is the northernmost hospital with an OR on the continent. It is a 48-bed facility, including long-term care. The 14-bed acute care unit includes 2 labour and delivery rooms. Family Physicians reside in Inuvik and are part of a primary community care team, providing services in seven or more community health centers through scheduled travel, telephone, and Telehealth consultation.

Your anesthetic skills will be active with sedations for our high-caliber endoscopy program, general anesthetics for pediatric dental cases, a variety of elective procedures from cesarean sections to visiting specialist cases, and epidurals. You will also play a key role in our team for emergency care of all ages.

Your practice will include clinic, inpatient care, and emergency medicine in our rural hospital. Low-risk obstetrical care is an asset, but not required. Inuvik’s full-time complement includes ESS Physicians, FP-Anesthetists, and General Practitioners. We host a variety of visiting specialists from Yellowknife and Edmonton, including Obstetrics and Gynecology, Orthopedic Surgery, General Surgery, ENT, Internal Medicine, Pediatrics, Psychiatry, and others.

We are an active teaching hospital with strong partnerships with multiple universities and programs across the country. Our site has been described as a “Gold standard” for such training by UBC Faculty.

If you are ready for adventure and a great sense of community, the Town of Inuvik and your colleagues at the Inuvik Regional Hospital are ready to welcome you. You will not meet a better, more collegial group of physicians to work with in all of Canada than right here, above the Arctic Circle, in the heart of the Mackenzie River Delta.

Sincerely,

David Urquhart, MD and Gail Robson, MD

Living Here

The Northwest Territories (NWT) is home to approximately 43,000 people in 33 communities across a landscape of over 1.34 million square kilometers.

Located just above the 68th parallel lies Canada's most northern region, the Beaufort Delta, with a population of 7,100 across eight communities. Inuvik is the third largest community in the NWT. Our region is full of northern culture, beauty, adventure, and Pingos!

The region is known for the talented artists that bring traditional crafts to modern-day life. Impressive beading, carving, fur crafts, and traditional clothing is for sale year-round online, at the seasonal Arctic Markets, and during the Great Northern Arts Festival.

You will find a new appreciation for snowshoeing, dogsledding, fishing, paddling, berry picking, and boating on the Mackenzie in this vast and charming region. Inuvik residents love baseball and hockey and host multiple tournaments annually. The recreation centre takes care of your other sporting needs with the aquatic centre, hockey arena, gym, as well as squash, curling, and a variety of sports.

Inuvik is a friendly town that is home to a diverse group of people including Inuvialuit, Gwich'in, and other indigenous people, as well as Northerners and Southerners from all over the world! There is also a large 2SLGBTQIA+ community. Inuvik is dynamic and welcoming to all!
